Can't Get Along Without "Page's Perfected Poultry Food."

Poultrymen should be careful to discriminate between "Page's Perfected Poultry Food" and the various "condition powders" with which the market is flooded nowadays. It is not a medicine in the strict sense of the word, but an honest food which, if the fowls are otherwise properly cared for, will return the poultryman more than 200 per cent profit. Mrs. H. H. Blanchard of Brownsville, Vt., expresses the common sentiment of users of this food. She says: "I have tried and fed 'Page's Perfected Poultry Food' for two years and am now feeding it. Will say that I keep from 75 to 100 hens and think I cannot get along without it."

Any one sending his address on a postal card to C. S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt., and mentioning this paper, will receive by mail, free, postpaid, a sample package of "Page's Perfected Poultry Food."
